

World Leader in Hair Transplants Opens New Center in Mumbai, India

March 19, 2011 – Nu/Hart Hair Clinics, a world leader in hair restoration, has opened a new hair transplant center in Mumbai, India, in the upscale Kemps Corner area of Mumbai, formerly known as Bombay.

Hair transplantation is a clinic-based procedure that takes only a few hours. The procedure is performed by an experienced, Nu/Hart trained hair transplant physician. You are wide awake during the procedure and can go home immediately following your session.

Nu/Hart Hair Clinics, based in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, USA, operates eleven centers worldwide including New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Puerto Rico, London, Dubai, Hong Kong, Manila, and now Mumbai, India.

Nu/Hart doctors have treated American, European, Indian, Middle Eastern as well as Asian and African clients. Nu/Hart has treated numerous Indian clients in their US and Dubai offices which has provided them with the experience of dealing with Indian hair loss clients.

According to Kathy Smith, President of Nu/Hart, "We are proud to bring Nu/Hart to our Indian clients so they do not have travel outside of India to have a hair transplant. Our doctors in India are equally capable as our international doctors and we offer the same quality and standards as well as outstanding clinical care and service."

Nu/Hart has been in existence for over 20 years, and its 16 physicians have performed over 30,000 hair restoration procedures on clients from over 40 countries with excellent results.

According to Mac Fadra, Director of Nu/Hart and Managing-Member of Cosmetic Medical Partners, "We are proud to develop our hair transplant business in one of the world's fastest growing economies - India. Hair transplantation is a procedure with strong demand amongst Indian males."

For a limited time, you can meet our renowned hair transplant expert from the US, Dr. Mark Boles, who will be at our Mumbai centre between April 1 and 7.
